Art Unit: 1623

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 126 and 128-145 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Singer et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,365,574).

Singer et al disclose the claimed pharmaceutical tablet comprising substantially pure monohydrate hemi-ethanol solvate (columns 3-4).

Applicant's arguments filed November 15, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant contends that the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences held that there is "no interference-fact" between the claims on "substantially pure azithromycin monohydrate hemi-ethanol solvate" and the claims in Singer et al. This argument has not been found persuasive because the present claims are not limited to "substantially pure azithromycin monohydrate hemi-ethanol solvate" but encompass said compound in tablet form in combination with pharmaceutically acceptable carriers and diluents. The pharmaceutically acceptable carriers and diluents encompass aqueous solutions. Since the crystalline compound encompassed by the present claims in an aqueous solution would be the same as the compound disclosed by Singer et al, the present claims are still anticipated by Singer et al. Further, applicant has not provided any evidence that substantially pure azithromycin monohydrate hemi-ethanol solvate" will retain its crystalline structure under compression in the process of forming tablets.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
